1. More than 50 buildings, which formerly served as Italian Army barracks, are located in Rrashbuell, on the Durres-Tirana highway five kilometers from Durres. These buildings now have been transformed into warehouses for the Albanian Army where ammunition, uniforms and food supplies are stored. They are reportedly guarded by more than 400 armed guards.

2. Facing these buildings there is a very large car park for the use of military units in Durres. There have reportedly been more than 700 Tatra trucks parked in this area for the past year.
